

J.6C (2) Chan Long Yuet Ronnie

Dear Alamby,

I want to share Charlie and the Chocolate Factory with you because Charlie who is kind made me think of you.

In the story, Charlie lived in a small house with his poor family. Although Charlie did not have enough food, he gave it to his grandfather. One day, his mum bought a bar of chocolate for him because it was his birthday. He shared his chocolate with his whole family. He is so kind and generous.

After I read this story, it reminds me your kindness. You are as kind as a puppy.

As Charlie said, 'I want to share my chocolate with you.' I am giving this book to you to show that I am happy for what you do to me. I hope this book can bring you happiness.

The story inspires me to become a kind person like you. Thank you, Alamby!

Yours,

Ronnie